RAC Report

The RAC met on September 12th at the Trillium offices in Eugene. The meeting focused on preparations for the Oct. 9th Community Meeting in Florence. It was determined that Terry Coplin, Rick Yecney and Bruce Abel will speak. Char Reavis and Lezlee Craven, as the chair and co-chair of the RAC will do the introduction. County Commissioner Jay Bozievich will do the introduction. The RAC will have a table for Trillium information and to recruit people to participate in the RAC. The member survey will be available for members to complete. A distribution plan for flyers was made and RAC members agreed to contact people in Florence.

The RAC will meet briefly prior to the Community meeting on October 9th.

Char Reavis discussed some work that the CAC and RAC leaders are doing as part of the Transformation Center. She and some CAC members are participating in leadership training.

It was agreed that the next step for the RAC will be focusing on Oakridge. Leah will be collecting information for the next meeting.
